Super Lawyers has revealed their 2025 list of top lawyers and 11 Wigdor attorneys have been included in their rankings. Each year, Super Lawyers reviews lawyers across the country for its annual list of top attorneys. The list is revealed annually, on a rolling state-by-state basis and is determined through a combination of peer nominations and evaluations, as well as independent research. Candidates are gauged according to 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement and the final list is a highly valued resource for potential clients seeking legal counsel.
