Sexual Harassment, Discrimination & Retaliation Claims Against Manhattan Based Alvarez & Marsal Inc.

July 25, 2014 • Results

Wigdor LLP formerly represented Ms. Maysa Abdel-Razeq, a single mother and two- time cancer survivor in an action against her employer Alvarez & Marsal Inc. Ms. Abdel- Razeq was subjected to, as alleged in the complaint, a blatant campaign of sexual harassment, discrimination and retaliation at the hands of her boss, Paul Aversano as well as other individual leaders of the Company. As alleged in the complaint, throughout her employment, Ms. Abdel- Razeq was the victim of endless racist and harassing conduct by Mr. Aversano, both over Company email and verbally, including a comment that he hoped she was "not like Kim Kardashian – a nigger lover." Ms. Abdel-Razeq brought this action to redress the hostile work environment, which has not only threatened her professional livelihood but her immediate health by way of severe emotional distress as well.

Daily News
"Perv boss compared me with Kim Kardashian in racist come-ons, sex harassment suit claims"
July 24, 2014
Read online
Read PDF

New York Post
"Woman sues boss who said her 'body is like a Coca-Cola bottle'"
July 24, 2014
Read online
Read PDF

The Gothamist
"Woman Files Sexual Harassment Suit Against Boss Who Allegedly Wooed Her With Racist Insults"
July 24, 2014
Read online
Read PDF