

Founding Partner Douglas H. Wigdor Quoted In Journal Article Discussing Us Supreme Court Decision

March 3, 2014 • News & Press

Employment Litigator and Founding Partner Douglas H. Wigdor was asked to give an opinion in a Law 360 article centering on the issue of whether time spent performing post- shift security checks is compensable. The Supreme Court decision will seek to clarify the ambiguity surrounding what activities constitute work that employees must be paid for under the Fair Labor Standards Act.
