

Unlawful Retaliation At The Change Group

January 22, 2014 • Results

Wigdor LLP represented Gerald Giraldo, a former sales consultant at The Change Group, an international currency exchange company. As alleged in the Complaint, Mr. Giraldo was terminated after making an anonymous email complaint discussing widespread discrimination, sexual harassment and unlawful retaliation by management. Later the same day, Mr. Giraldo received a response to the email that said "Game Over" indicating that it was believed that he was the author of the anonymous complaint. He was fired shortly thereafter.
