

Shoplifting Charges Dismissed After False Accusation At Macy's – Another Example Of Racial Profiling At The World Famous Department Store

April 30, 2014 • Results

As reported, on the heels of accusations in the media alleging racial profiling against retail customers at Macy's, Wigdor LLP attorneys Douglas H. Wigdor and Tanvir H. Rahman successfully represented Joweria Khalid, a Pakistani woman who was accused by Macy's of shoplifting, but whose charges were ultimately dropped by the Manhattan District Attorney's office.
