Wigdor LLP obtained a multi-million dollar verdict at trial on behalf of former Editor-in-Chief of The Source Magazine, Kim Osorio. After a two week trial, a jury in Manhattan Federal Court returned the multi-million dollar verdict on behalf of Ms. Osorio. The jury found that Ms. Osorio was retaliated against when she filed a complaint of discrimination and was defamed when the co-owner of The Source, Raymond Scott (aka "Benzino"), claimed that she attempted to extort The Source. Individual defendant and co-owner David Mays was also found liable.
