

Top Sportscaster Terminated Because Of Age

October 14, 2010 • Legal Updates & Insights

Wigdor LLP represented Sal Marchiano, the Emmy-winning “dean” of New York sports television reporters, in an age discrimination action stemming from his false “retirement” from WPIX/Channel 11's news team.

Despite his long list of honors and accolades, management at WPIX decided to replace Mr. Marchiano with a reporter decades younger in a blatant act of ageism. Wigdor LLP also represented Larry Hoff, a former features reporter for WPIX in a separately filed age discrimination lawsuit.

Read the complaint

Read PDF

New York Times

“Sportscasting Fixture Files Age-Discrimination Lawsuit”

October 14, 2010

Read PDF

Daily News

“Lawsuit cries foul in PIX sportscaster’s exit”

October 14, 2010

Read PDF