

Wigdor LLP Files Class Action Against Domino's Alleging Institutional Wage Violations

April 5, 2016 • News & Press

Elliot Brown / Flickr / CC BY 2.0

Wigdor LLP represents the plaintiff and putative class in a wage and hour class action filed against Domino's. The complaint alleges that Domino's has repeatedly been rebuked for unlawful wage violations and mistreatment of employees by the New York State Attorney General and its franchisees have been required to pay millions of dollars to remedy unlawful wage practices in recent years. This action seeks to hold Domino's liable as franchisor for the continuing wage violations committed by its franchisees.

View the Complaint: Read PDF

Law 360

"Domino's Should Pay For Franchise Wage Violations, Suit Says"

April 4, 2016

Read online

Read PDF

Reuters

"Lawsuit says Domino's a joint employer of franchise workers"

April 5, 2016

Read online

Read PDF

Grubstreet

"Domino's Sued Again for Allegedly Paying Workers Less Than Minimum Wage"

April 5, 2016

Read online

Read PDF

Franchise Times

"New day' for joint employer litigation"

May 2016

Read online

Read PDF